

ZION PROCLAIMER

March 2015

In this month of March we continue to look at the series, Singing with the Exiles. It is a series built upon Isaiah 40-55. It helps us see Lent through the eyes of the Exiles in Babylon during the book of Isaiah. Below is an insert CPH said we could use for Newsletter Articles. So please join us on Wednesdays at 11:00 or 6:00 with a meal following the 11:00 service and a meal before the 6:00 service. God's blessings on your Lenten journey this year.

Gathered by the waters of Babylon, Judean exiles wistfully wondered: Is God for real? If so, does He really care about us? What does our future hold? Will this ever change? God's people had watched their world shatter into a million pieces. They were demoralized and disillusioned. Their disaster looked terminal.

Do you feel this way? Does it look as though your current problems are more than you can bear? Do you find yourself asking: Why did this happen? Why did God allow it? Is there any order in the world? Will God really deliver on what He said?

Isaiah answers these questions in chapters 40–55 of his book. He announces that just when Israel's history seemed closed and controlled by hopeless Babylonian imperial policy, to the shock and surprise of everyone the Lord will stir up a king named Cyrus and a new exodus will explode in the desert! A Servant will be wounded for our transgressions and crushed for our iniquities. And barren Zion will be given so many children that, like the old woman in the shoe, she won't know what to do! Standing behind these marvelous promises is God's almighty Word. "The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever" (Isaiah 40:8). The exiles are going home!

That's why we are "Singing with the Exiles" as they are restored to their home.

This Lent, Isaiah 40–55 will shape us as we . . .

Meditate upon daily devotions based upon these chapters;

Study texts from Isaiah in Sunday morning adult Bible class; and

Listen to the following sermons:

Ash Wednesday: "God Has a Word for That" (Isaiah 41:14–16)

Lent 1: "He Only Has Eyes for You" (Isaiah 43:1–7)

Lent 2: "Marked" (Isaiah 44:1–5)

Lent 3: "Breaking Down the Gates" (Isaiah 45:1–8)

Lent 4: "Get Out!" (Isaiah 48:17–22)

Lent 5: "One Little Word Can Fell Him" (Isaiah 49:1–6)

Holy Thursday: "He Prepares a Table" (Isaiah 49:7–13)

Good Friday: "All" (Isaiah 52:13–53:12)

Easter Vigil: "Nothing" (Isaiah 54:1–8)

Easter Sunday: "We Are Going Home" (Isaiah 55:6–13)

Plan now to sing with the exiles as we learn from Isaiah to walk the Lenten way to the cross and to the empty tomb. God promises to turn our weeping into joy and our present pain into an endless Alleluia!

Blessings in Christ,

Pastor Dose

“Train a Child in the way he should go...”

Proverbs 22:6

What better way to train a child than to give them an opportunity to join the fun for Cub Weeks at Camp Okoboji in July! The Camp Okoboi Auxiliary is again giving away scholarships for a week at Camp for children ages 9-13.

The path is so easy. Stop by the church office and pick up an application. Applicants do need to be members of a Missouri Synod Lutheran Church.

They must in their own words—100 or less—tell our selection committee why they would love to go to camp this year. The Auxiliary will pay the child’s cost and we will also pay the way for one of their pals to go with them.

Applications must be received in the Camp Office no later than March 29th. The committee will review the applications and make the selections. Please note that preference will be given to campers who have not previously won

The children selected will be announced at the Camp’s Annual Meeting that will be held on April 11 2015. They will be individually notified later and will receive the necessary information to complete their application for Cub Week

If you have any questions or need help with the application, you can contact Rebecca Dose.

Small Stewards - Big Blessings
By Rev. Bob Riggert
Biblical Stewardship Lessons for and with Children

(You are invited to share these lessons with children in Sunday school openings, classroom devotions, children's worship lessons, or other church settings. They can also be used in the home for family devotions. Each month a biblical "small steward" will share a "big blessing" as a Spirit-blessed example of stewardship. The "Notes to Family" can be detached and sent home with the children.)

Text: 2 Chronicles 34:1-21

The eight year olds in our lives may be stewards of their math book, ball glove, video game, or other routine possessions. Eight year old King Josiah was steward of an entire kingdom. The grandfather and father of the boy king had both been unfaithful to the God of Israel. 2 Chronicles 34:2 compliments Josiah, "He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David his father." King Josiah removed the idols and repaired the temple. God's Word was again found in the temple. Reading again of God's will for His people, Josiah led the nation in repentance and worship of the true God again.

Reading God's Word, Josiah and the people heard again of God's promises of a Savior. God would send the perfect King who was the fulfillment of God's Word. King Jesus would make it possible for all of us to be in the Kingdom of God forever.

The children in our church and the children in our family, most likely won't be anointed kings and won't be stewards of vast treasures. God asks all of us to be faithful managers of the things He has given us. He may even challenge us to be steward leaders in our school, team, family, and other places. We can be bold in looking for idols that keep us away from God. We can find and share the truth of God's Word with others.

Lutheran Church Extension Fund celebrates the kids in the kingdom of God. The Young Investors Club is a way for children to lead the way in providing resources to build churches and schools around the world. While learning the truths of God's Word, Y.I. Club members can also learn how to save money for the day-to-day kingdom treasures. Just $25 can open a Y.I. Club account.

Prayer: Dear Jesus, help me to be faithful to You like King Josiah. Help me to be bold in sharing and living the truths of Your Word. Thank You for all that You have given me. Help me to share, save and spend wisely. Amen.

Small Stewards Bring Big Blessings Home—Notes to Family

Learn more about King Josiah in 2 Kings 22-23. If Josiah were to take down idols today, what would he remove? Why is it important for the family to know and follow the truth of God's Word? What amazing things for God have you seen eight year olds (or other children) do? Why is it hard to stand up for the truth of God's Word at any age? Children can do amazing things in the kingdom of God. As children participate in the LCEF Young Investors Club, they are an important partner in the church sharing the truth of King Jesus.

The Lutheran Church Extension Fund Young Investor Club encourages wise stewardship of money and minds. Find out more about the good grades incentive from your church's Y.I. Club coordinator or by visiting www.lcef.org. Let me learn like Jesus. Let me learn of Jesus!

The mission of Iowa District West is Connecting, Resourcing, Optimizing, Partnering and Serving with the member congregations for the extension of the Gospel within our communities, throughout the District, and into all the world.

March Madness

For many individuals the month of March means one thing—"March Madness," the NCAA basketball tournament. To those who don't "understand," it may seem like a lot of foolishness, but to those who embrace the game of college basketball, there's no better time of year! (I must confess that I'm in the latter group!)

There's another "March Madness" that we'll be observing this year. The month of March falls in the church season of Lent, the 40-day period in which we journey with our Lord to the city of Jerusalem where He will be betrayed, condemned, and crucified. To many it's madness that the King of Kings would be betrayed and beaten. It's madness that the perfect Son of God would be condemned and crucified like a common criminal. It's madness that He would do all of this willingly. As St. Paul writes, The message of the cross is foolishness [madness?] to those who are perishing. (1 Corinthians 1:18)

However, to those of us who see with the eyes of faith, it's not madness. It's love—God's indescribable, unfailing, undeserved, and perfect love for us that led Him to take our place in death for our sin. It's peace—peace with God because we have received forgiveness for all our sin. And it's victory—victory over sin, death, and Satan!

Enjoy the tournament if you like, but more importantly participate in the "March Madness" of Lent—culminating in Holy Week and Easter. Identify one practical way you can demonstrate that amazing love to one who doesn't understand the Savior. Then pray for an opportunity to explain the reasoning behind your actions!
