"Dose of Wisdom"

THIS IS MY SON—2022 Advent and Christmas Series

Whenever some pastors meet with a couple for pre-marriage counseling, they will share this quote: "Every disappointment involves unmet expectations." Then they talk about what expectations for marriage are realistic or unrealistic. They also let them know that their spouse will inevitably let them down— sometimes multiple times a day!

Marriage is not the only source of disappointment and unmet expectations. Every human relationship will deal with these issues.

Have you been happy with every decision an elected official has made, even one for whom you voted? Does your boss ever let you down? Have your employees always done their job well? Do your friends always come through for you? Do your children always make good and wise decisions based on what you have taught them? Human beings will disappoint by failing to meet expectations. No wonder the psalmist tells us in Psalm 146:3-4, "Put not your trust in princes, in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation. When his breath departs, he returns to the earth; on that very day his plans perish."

Parents have hopes and expectations for their children. Sometimes these are healthy expectations. Other times parents place unfair or unrealistic expectations on their children. This upcoming Advent season, during our midweek services, we will look at three different sons of men who were disappointments to their fathers.

In the first week, we will be introduced to Cain, the son of Adam. No doubt Adam had higher hopes for Cain than for him to be known as the first murderer in history. But his murder of his brother reveals the murder lurking in all our hearts.

In the second week, we will be introduced to Ishmael, the son of Abraham. Though it was not his fault, Ishmael was a disappointment to Abraham because he was not the child of the promise. Abraham's efforts to take things into his own hands highlight our own tendency to do the same in our relationship with God.

In the third week, we will be introduced to Absalom, the son of David. This rebellious son broke David's heart and exposes the rebellion we display against our heavenly Father. But each week, we will also be pointed to a different Son. This Son is the true Son of Adam. He is the true Son of Abraham. He is the true Son of David. He is the Son who never disappointed His Father. He is the Son who never did any wrong. He is the Son of whom the Father spoke: "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to Him" (Matthew 17:5). This true Man, conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary, is also the Son of God, the very Son of God now living in our flesh and blood. This Son is Jesus, the Christ, the Messiah, who fulfills the hope of salvation "that we might receive adoption as sons" (Galatians 4:5). He is the One whom the psalmist spoke of in Psalm 146:5: "Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God."

During this series, entitled This Is My Son, you will hear again that your heavenly Father is not disappointed in you. Rather, through Jesus, He considers you to be His beloved child, with whom He is well pleased.

I invite you to join us for the Advent and Christmas services November 30th, December 7th, and December 14th. We will use the Service of Compline for our Evening Services and

Honor our veterans

Veterans Day, which is November 11 each year, is a holiday to honor America's veterans for their patriotism and willingness to serve and sacrifice for our nation's common good.

Christians follow the Prince of Peace, so war is a dilemma that often challenges people of faith. Some Christians are pacifists, while others believe in a "just war." Many believe that the goals of freedom, justice, equality and democracy are worth the cost required.

Whatever individual Christians decide about any given conflict, most Christians believe that men and women who strive to make this world free of tyrants are to be respected. As Winston Churchill said, "Never in the field of human conflict was so much owed by so many to so few."

Thank you to all the men and women who served or are now serving our country.

Cornucopia, a Greek word meaning “horn of plenty,” has origins in Greek mythology. But the cornucopia became a religious symbol and was even stamped on Jewish coins. Overflowing horns, now common as Thanksgiving centerpieces, came to symbolize abundance and blessings.

Giving thanks for all things

It's easy to list the blessings in life: good health, family, a satisfying career, a comfortable home. We might even be thankful for things others take for granted, such as freedom, clean drinking water, reliable transportation and food enough to eat. Then there are the little things, such as gardens, sunrises, pets and coffee.

What about life's storms or unanswered prayers? Should we be thankful for these? Loss and hardship remind us of our dependence on God. He uses trials to draw us closer to him, to show us that he is our rock and refuge. In misfortune and grief, we discover God's comfort and strength. Should we not, then, be thankful for the storms, too?

The beginning of Advent

November is the month of Thanksgiving, but it often also includes the beginning of a new church year. This year, November 29th is the first Sunday of Advent. The season of Advent is about Jesus, the Word, “coming.” It's about anticipating and preparing for Christ's arrival.

God comes to us in many and various ways. He speaks to us through the prophets and saints. He comes and speaks to us when we are listening. He comes in the beauty and mysteries of nature. Most of all, God comes in the person of Christ, speaking to his listeners face to face.

Pastor Edmund Steimle put it this way: “The Christian story is a story of God coming into the middle of life, of our lives, opening the dialogue with us.”

That's what Advent is really all about: God visiting the earth in person to speak with anyone and everyone who is ready to do so.

God's precious saints

A man mourning the sudden death of his young wife wondered, “Where was God when Jenny died?” Unable to sleep, he turned to Scripture and read Psalm 116:3 (NIV): “The anguish of the grave came upon me: I was overcome by trouble and sorrow.” The man's anguish echoed the psalmist's. Reading on, he discovered verse 15: “Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.”

“What does it mean by precious?” the man wondered. The footnote proved helpful: “Not in the sense of highly valued, but of that which is carefully watched over.” The widower pictured God watching over his wife in her last moments. “That's where God was,” the man thought with relief.

May we, too, be assured that God cares for his saints — not only at death but also in life, through grief and into healing.

Have we forgotten God?

We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven; we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has grown.

But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us, and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own.

Intoxicated with unbroken success we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us.

It has seemed to me fit and proper that God should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and one voice, by the whole of the American people. I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens.

—Abraham Lincoln,
1863 Thanksgiving Proclamation

Control

Things we CANNOT control:

- Someone else's faults
- How long we will live
- Another person's opportunities

Things we CAN control:

- Our attitude
- The kind of life we live
- What we do with our opportunities

Three kinds of giving

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving, duty giving and thanksgiving. Grudge giving says, 'I have to'; duty giving says, 'I ought to'; and thanksgiving says, 'I want to.' The latter comes from a full heart. Thanksgiving is an open gate into the love of God."

Hurricane Ian Update #3

October 14, 2022

Updates #1 and #2: <https://idwlcms.org/ioway.php>

Pastor David Dahlke, Lakeside Lutheran Church at Venice, Florida called to express his thanks and the thanks from the people who received tarps, etc. from Iowa District West. Pastor Mark and Ruth Gerken were with him as they were delivering items. Mark and Ruth were happy to arrive in Florida safely. The ambulance had tire issues created by the wrong valve stems on new 12-ply tires. This happened three different times. Two tires went flat before they got out of Iowa and the next one was in Tennessee, I believe. The tire issues delayed the delivery of tarps and health kits, causing much frustration and concern for Mark and Ruth as well as for Deb and Bret Harklau who purchased and donated the ambulance. A silver lining in this tire problem is that the first delay in Des Moines allowed for the addition of 202 health kits assembled by LWML women in Mapleton Zone to be added to the delivery.

The health kits and over 1,000 tarps are now in Florida where they are desperately needed. The phone conversation this morning was emotional. They delivered many tarps to a FEMA location and the people were overwhelmed that they could get one and that they were free. Tarps were soon gone. Also, three of the churches south of Pastor Dahlke's church also received tarps for people in those locations. The health kits were viewed as gold by those receiving them.

I had also ordered box fans that were sent via Amazon Prime, and they are being distributed. Money was also sent from our district to Pastor Dahlke's congregation for them to distribute to people in need. They have been giving gift cards and donations to those who are hurting from their loss and once again, their hearts are responding with thankfulness as it lifts their spirits. The people are so thankful that Iowa people are responding to their great need caused by Hurricane Ian's devastation.

THANK YOU to those who have donated to IDW for the disaster response! $4,000 was initially sent to Pastor Dahlke's church and I directed $6,000 more because of the generosity of God's people. The money will bless people with God's love. Additionally, they can use more fans, so I have ordered them as well. The generosity of people in our district is wonderful and I am privileged to be able to be part of the relief effort. God's blessings to all of you!
