

This past Sunday we celebrated Trinity Sunday. Many of you probably thought about the Trinity, but it is a very hard concept to understand. It is for me too. Here is an article written by Pastor Jonathan Conner at Zion, Manning. I am going to share it in two parts. This is the first part to look at the Trinity and how we confess this Christian truth.

“As Lutheran Christians, we are Trinitarian Monotheists. Yes, it’s a mouthful to say, but it’s important to understand that it’s a mouthful of orthodoxy. Orthodoxy has to do with sound or right doctrine/teaching, and the Bible repeatedly exhorts us to guard our doctrine closely. It’s precisely the sort of words that should fill our mouths.

Take but a few examples from the Pastoral Epistles (1 and 2 Timothy and Titus). Paul warns Timothy in 1 Timothy 6:3, “If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing.” In 2 Timothy 4:3-4 he warns, “the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths.”

In Titus 1:9 he tells Titus that the congregation’s overseer (pastor), “must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it.” And in 1 Timothy 4:16 Paul reminds Timothy what’s at stake: “Keep a close watch on yourself and on the teaching. Persist in this, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers.” Orthodoxy matters, for as Paul makes clear, if we lose it, we lose salvation!

Trinitarian Monotheism is the Christian Church’s orthodoxy on God – and if we lose it, we lose the true God!

Trinitarian Monotheism is the Christian Church’s orthodoxy (correct teaching) on God and if we lose it, we lose the true God! We confess our Trinitarian Monotheism in the Church’s historic creeds: the Nicene, Apostles’, and Athanasian. Formulated over the first few centuries of the Church’s existence, these creeds represent centuries of thought and study as they establish a pattern of sound words that rightly express the Bible’s teaching on God and give us a mouthful of orthodoxy to confess every week.

Some churches today are opposed to creeds, claiming, “No creed but the Bible!” (which, ironically, is itself a creed). But the preservation of sound doctrine (which the creeds were designed to do) is one of the reasons Jesus gave His Church the keys to the kingdom of heaven. The Church was given the authority to discern which teachings accorded with God’s revealed will and which didn’t. So the Church penned the creeds to keep us from veering into false doctrine and away from the Triune God. In short, we need to know and understand these words!

On May 28, the Church celebrated Trinity Sunday. That celebration included confessing the Athanasian Creed. This creed explicitly details what it means to be a Trinitarian Monotheist. If you confessed it you chewed on its mouthful of orthodoxy. You can find it printed on page 319-320 in our hymnal (Lutheran Service Book). The hymnal’s introductory remarks explain,

The Athanasian Creed declares that its teachings concerning the Holy Trinity and our Lord’s incarnation are ‘the catholic faith.’ In other words, this is what the true Church of all times and all places has confessed. More than fifteen centuries later, the Church continues to confess this truth, confident that the triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, has given Himself for our salvation.

The creed introduces its mouthful of orthodoxy by explaining that “we worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, neither confusing the persons nor dividing the substance.” This is Trinitarian Monotheism – One God; three Persons. The creed makes this clear: “the Father is one person, the Son is another, and the Holy Spirit is another. But the Godhead of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is one: the glory equal, the majesty coeternal.”

It’s critical at this juncture that we understand the terms. Each Person of the Triune God shares the essence of God while remaining distinct Persons. The creed goes on to explain. Each Person is “uncreated... infinite... eternal.” “And yet there are not three Eternals... there are not three Uncreated or three Infinites...” Notice the capitalization. Each person is eternal, uncreated, and infinite, but there is only One Uncreated, Infinite, and Eternal, so three Persons, one God.

All this remains relevant today because many of the ancient heresies that the creed condemns have been subtly repackaged in modern religions which deceptively use orthodox words with heretical definitions. In other words, they use the same words, but a different dictionary. For example, an ancient heresy called “modalism” has been repackaged in some modern Mormon-related religions. This heresy rightly speaks of God as one. It also speaks of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, but instead of using an orthodox dictionary to define them as Persons, it defines them as “modes” or “expressions” of God.

So, it speaks of God existing in the mode of the Father, the mode of the Son, and the mode of the Holy Spirit. Think of a wristwatch. You can change its mode from “time” to “stopwatch” to “alarm,” but you can only display one of these modes at a time. So, modalism describes God as the Father mode in the Old Testament, the Son mode in the New, and the Spirit mode after Jesus’ ascension. But repeatedly throughout Scripture we see all three Persons simultaneously present (e.g. Jesus’ baptism). God does not exist in one mode at a time; He is eternally three Persons.”

Blessings,

Pastor Dose (with much help from Pastor Conner)

LADIES AID: Will meet on Thursday, June 1st at 9 am here at the L.W.M.L.

“Serve the Lord with Gladness”

EVENING CIRCLE:
The Evening Circle will be meeting at 7pm on Wednesday, June 7th at the home of Dawn Luetje Co-Hostess is Sandy Hunter

MARTHA CIRCLE: Sandy Hunter
CHANCEL CIRCLE: Donna Rickers & Melissa Ehlers
PARISH CIRCLE: Deb Owen

This reminder goes out endlessly, but sewing circle is ALWAYS in need of sheets, lightweight blankets, and NEW material for making quilt tops, middles and backs. A small group of ladies are the core of this worthwhile project. Quilt tops/back are made at home and the quilts are tied at church. The VBS will be using this project again, and it anticipated that this year’s group will assemble 40 or more quilts. This means that at least 120 tops, insides and backs are needed!!! The large pieces of material (especially sheets) speed up the job!

Our Summer Worship Schedule will begin on Sunday, June 4th at 9 am each Sunday through August 28th. We will resume Fall Schedule on September 5th. There will be NO Sunday School Classes during the months of June, July & August.

Adult Bible Class will be held at 10 each Sunday. Will be watching the movie “The Chosen” season 3

Scholarship Recipients

We would like to offer our congratulations Maggie Ragaller who was the recipient of the Violetta Andersen Scholarship and to Timothy Dose, who was the recipient of the Zion Memorial Scholarship.

schedule

Sunday-June 4th::	9:00 am	Divine Worship
Sunday-June 11th	9:00 am	Divine Worship/HC

V.B.S

Greetings to all students and friends of Zion. This is a reminder that V.B.S. will be held Tuesday to Friday, June 6-9. Our theme this year is "God's Living Water" Covered in Jesus' Grace. Our classes will begin with opening devotions at 8:30 am (so plan your arrival accordingly) and will end with closing devotions at 11:30 am. All children ages 4 (June 6 through the 8th grade are invited and encouraged to attend. (class you will be in this fall)

REMINDERS: 1) Students are reminded that "good" clothes should NOT be worn as some craft projects can be kind of messy. 2) Daily offerings will be taken and given for a special mission project.

QUILTS: The 5th-8th Graders will be tying quilts with anticipation of out doing the number from last year. If you have any sheets, lightweight blankets, etc, please bring them to the church as this will help with the project. They will also be rolling bandages for 3rd world countries.

V.B.S

June 6-9, 2023

8:30-11:30 am

In the busy times we are currently in, handling the finances of our congregation is requiring more and more work. In an effort to save our financial people time we ask that you consider an old idea, that of the Simply Giving Program. To refresh your memory, Simply Giving is a program where once a week, once a month, or twice a month, your offering is automatically deducted from your checking account and automatically deposited into the churches account. All you will need to do is once a week (or whatever you choose) is to record the amount in your check register. That is all there is to it. The amount is set by you and doesn't change unless you request it to be changed or discontinued. Special services like Advent, Lent, Christmas, etc are NOT automatically deducted and we would encourage you to use your offering envelopes for those services just like in the past. For each person our Financial Secretary has to handle 52 envelopes and bookkeeping entries per year, and when you multiply that by approximately 250 envelope numbers, that is a significant amount of work that could be avoided by using the Simply Giving Program. An additional bonus would be that our giving throughout the year would be more consistent. We prayerfully ask that you consider making this small change that would be of big help. To learn more about this program, please contact the church office

HARVEST ACCOUNT

As in the past several years many members of Zion have offered their thanks to the Lord at harvest (or anytime) by presenting a part of their harvest to the Lord. If you would like to offer a gift to the Lord you can do so by letting the Arcadia Elevator know how many bushels of corn or beans you would like to give and that it is for Zion's Harvest Account

DADDY'S HANDS

I remember daddy's hands folded silently in prayer
 And reaching' out to hold me, when I had a nightmare
 You could read quite a story in the callous' and lines
 Years of work and worry had left their mark behind I remember daddy's hands how they held my mama tight
 And patted my back for something done right
 There are things that I'd forgotten that I loved about the man
 But I'll always remember the love in daddy's hands . Daddy's hands were soft and kind when I was cryin'
 Daddy's hands were hard as steel when I'd done wrong
 Daddy's hands weren't always gentle but I've come to understand
 There was always love in daddy's hands. I remember daddy's hands workin' 'til they bled
 Sacrificed unselfishly just to keep us all fed
 If I could do things over, I'd live my life again
 And never take for granted the love in daddy's hands

Here am I, Send Me!

Hark the Voice of Jesus Calling is a favorite hymn of mine. The first stanza reads as follows: "Hark! The voice of Jesus calling, Who will go and work today? Fields are white, the harvest waiting, Who will bear the sheaves away? Loud and long the Master calleth, Rich reward He offers free; Who will answer, gladly saying, Here am I, O Lord, send me?"

There is a shortage of pastors, teachers, directors of Christian education and other church professionals. This number has been declining rapidly over the last 5-10 years as less people enter church work and many are at retirement age.

You might say, "What can I do about this?" The third verse of the song says, "with your prayers and with your bounties You can do what Heaven demands, You can be like faithful Aaron, holding up the prophet's hands." You can pray for people to consider church work as a fulltime career; when you see young people who have gifts for church work you can encourage them to consider church work; and you can encourage your present church workers in your congregation. Let your pastor and other professional church workers know how much you appreciate them and the work they do to share the Gospel.

We all can do something as we hear the voice of Jesus calling. As verse 4 states "let none hear you idly saying, There is nothing I can do! Gladly take the tasks He gives you, Let His work your pleasure be." May we all answer "Here am I, send me, send me!"

IOWA LUTHERAN SCHOOL TUITION ORGANIZATION (ILSTO)

Please help ILSTO be fully funded for 2023! For the 2023 tax year, the legislature has allocated $20,000,000 for Tuition Tax Credits for the STO program across the state of Iowa. ILSTO will have $808,638 in tax credits to distribute to donors and has set a goal to raise $1,078,184. We are currently at 3% of our goal. We need your help to raise this money. Current tax laws have changed, so please consult your tax preparer for the impact on your tax situation. For more information, contact Dewey Tor-kelson at 712-260-2991.

NEW IOWAY DIRECTOR

The Iowa District West Board of Directors issued a call to Mrs. Julie Mann, an LCMS rostered teacher currently on candidate status, to serve as IOWAY Director. We are happy to announce that Mrs. Mann has accepted the call. Mrs. Mann has a Master of Arts in Education from Saint Mary's University - Winona, Minnesota, and a Bachelor of Arts in Education from Concordia University - Irvine, California. She has served as a mentor instructor for multiple student teachers. She has been a speaker for regional and national conferences and has authored portions of a curriculum guide used nationally. We will soon share more information and details, including her exact start date. In the meantime, please keep her and her family in your prayers during this transition.

A WORD COLLAGE FOR Dad

Create this artwork to express your love and appreciation for your dad or another special man this Father's Day.

What you need:

- A white painting canvas, foam-core board or poster board
- Letter stickers (or foam letters and glue)

What you do:

1. Using the letters, spell out words that describe your dad's character (loving, honest, godly, etc.) and/or his titles (protector, provider, mentor, etc.).
2. Arrange words in a crossword style, both horizontally and vertically.
3. When you have a design you like, stick the words onto the blank canvas or board.
4. Present the gift to your dad or another special man on Father's Day. He'll enjoy this reminder of your love and appreciation.

A FATHER'S LOVE

Psalm 103:13 (NIV) describes what God the Father feels toward us:
 "As a father has _____ on his children, so the LORD has _____ on those who fear him."

Directions: Match the biblical children to their father, using the clues by the father's name. Then write the corresponding letter on the line to complete the Bible verse above.

'Well, kiddo, it's you and me!'

T.J., a boy with developmental delays, is featured in Chicken Soup for the Soul: Children With Special Needs. T.J. and his father, who'd long yearned for a son, settled into a routine of daily outings.

Stacey, one of T.J.'s sisters, was moved when she realized how much their father loved that together time. One day, as their dad made T.J. laugh, "T.J. stopped and reached up to softly touch our father's face," Stacey writes. "My dad looked down at him and said ... 'Well, kiddo, it looks like it's you and me for the rest of my life.' There wasn't a sense of sadness or burden in my father's voice, only acceptance and unconditional love."

Our Father God says the same to each of us: "Well, kiddo, it's you and me forever!" No matter our weaknesses, our differences or even our tendencies to avoid time with him, God speaks with complete acceptance and love. He loves being with us — just as we are — and rejoices to be our Father forever.

A father's love

In all that you do, a dad's love plays a part.

There's always a place for him deep in your heart.

And each year that passes, you're even more glad,

More grateful and proud just to call him your dad!

—Author unknown

This age-old refrain of young travelers is followed by a second question: "How much longer?" How similar those queries are to the psalmist's oft-repeated cry, "How long, O Lord, how long?"

(Psalm 6:3b, NIV).

Patience is an uncommon virtue these days. We're anxious to get where we're going or to get what we want. But think how much we miss while wishing we were elsewhere! In our rush to reach a destination, we fail to grasp lessons that can be learned only along the way. What blessings might you be overlooking in the here-and-now and the right-where-you-are?

—Kari Myers

What is a Christian family?

A CHRISTIAN FAMILY is one in which parents so live the Christian life, and practice the presence of God that children come to accept God as the greatest reality of life.

A CHRISTIAN FAMILY is one in which each member is accepted and respected as a person having sacred worth.

A CHRISTIAN FAMILY is one that accepts the responsibility of worship and instruction to the end of developing the spiritual life of each person.

A CHRISTIAN FAMILY is one that manifests a faith in God, observes daily prayer and grace at meals.

A CHRISTIAN FAMILY is one that is committed to behavior in keeping with Christian ideals for family relations, community life, and national and world citizenship.

MEMBERS OF OUR SAVIOR LUTHERAN CHURCH IN NEWTON, IOWA VISIT MISSION CENTRAL ON MAY 6, 2023!

It was such a JOY to welcome members of Our Savior Lutheran from Newton, Iowa! They came a long distance with other visitors from several locations.

This group had the privilege of hearing from the Rev. Micah Wildauer Family from Belize and the Rev. Tyler McMiller family, our new missionaries establishing congregations in Italy.

These families gave excellent reports on their work for Jesus in these two countries and shared photos of their calling.

The children are pictured in the barn museum and the group in the Lord's Creation Theater. The group had the honor and privilege of praying for and sending these missionary families. It was indeed a special day!

We thank God for the groups and missionaries that come to hear how the Lord is working in HIS mission fields around the world.

THE HARDWORKING HOESINGS ARRIVE FROM NORTH SIOUX CITY, SOUTH DAKOTA!

What a blessing that the Lord sent us Missionaries Warren and Glenda Hoelsing to help with a HUGE job of improvement here at the Lord's Mission Central. The Lord sends special people at "just the right time" to help at this Miracle Place! One of our major problems here was the fact that every time it rained, the dirt from alongside the sidewalks would wash out on our parking lot.

The Lord sent our Volunteer Construction and Lawn Care Specialists, the Honorable Missionaries Warren and Glenda Hoelsing. These folks are installing a completely new system along all the sidewalks. White rock is being installed with a special plastic edging that will prevent this erosion from happening in the future.

These special volunteers installed the rock and edging. Old missionary Gary could never have figured this out! The Lord sent these special people to help in this wonderful way. These dear folks are truly NOT NORMAL...and they came at "just the right time." Thank you!

PASTOR FROM UGANDA EAST AFRICA COMES FOR VISIT WITH A MISSIONARY FROM SUMNER, IOWA

It was the only day I had open for two special visitors that the Lord was going to send! Missionary Reid Rogahn called from Sumner, Iowa, and said, "Gary, can we stop over to have a tour and visit on Friday, May 5? I have a Pastor who is staying with me from Uganda in East Africa."

What a blessing to show these dear new friends what God can do in the middle of nowhere with an old set of farm buildings! We provided a tour for these two men, and they were a bit SHOCKED when they saw what God is doing! Reid said, "Gary, I'm going to bring people here from our part of eastern Iowa so they can have this experience that we had today!"

Pastor William Wiswa from Uganda was amazed! He is currently serving a local congregation and also has two preaching stations that he is serving. His congregation has about 600 members!
