"Noble Note"

"For such a time as this." These words beautifully summarize the whole book of Esther. At that time, Israel was living in exile in a foreign land - separated from God's promised presence and grace within the Temple, enslaved by a pagan nation, and looked down up and hated by many nations. There came about a plan to eliminate the Jewish people. It was at this time that Esther, a beautiful Jewish woman, won a contest and became queen. And her uncle, Mordecai, sent messengers with these words of warning and encouragement:

> "Do not think to yourself that in the king's palace you will escape any more than all the other Jews. For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether you have not come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" (Esther 4:13-14)

With these words, Mordecai convinces Esther to stand up for God's people, and ultimately, for God's truth.

Those words spoken thousands of years ago are still applicable for God's people today. We can relate a lot to this text. We too find ourselves as the "cultural outsiders", as if we're living in a foreign land with foreign rules and looked down upon for our faith. We might not be facing the challenge of death as the Israelites were, but we are faced with many challenges and opponents which cause many to panic and question who we are and what we are supposed to be in this time and age and culture.

It would be easy for us to just keep to ourselves and allow the Christian faith to be pushed further back into a corner. It would be easy for us to hide our faith and pretend to be like the rest of the world, hoping to blend in and not be cast out.

But we are not called to live in shame or fear. We're not called by Jesus to live out our faith in secret, but to boldly and confidently live it out for all the world to see – not fearing what the world may think about us or do to us but trusting in God's promise to accomplish great things through us.

Who knows what god has planned for you and for what purposes He has place you here for. God has a specific plan for you as an individual, for your family, and for us as a church. As Mordecai said, "Who knows, maybe God has place you here in this place, at this time, with these people, in this situation, for a time such as this!?

You are not who you are by accident. You are not here on accident. You are not facing these challenges and joy with these specific people by chance. God has place you here for a reason. So step forward in faith and boldly live out that faith.

As we look out into the world, we can't help but see all the pain and suffering and evil around us. We can clearly see that the odds are not in our favor and that to stand firm in our convictions and to do what is right and good will not always benefit us, in fact, it will most likely cause us more frustration.

But maybe that's the point. Maybe that's the real blessing behind all of this. It's through the toughest and darkest times that we are able to see God's power and provisions. It's in those moments when we think all is lost that we begin to see that everything is in God's hands. It's in those moments of despair that we find real comfort and hope.

We won't be able to address every issue nor fix every problem, but I hope we can see that we are in the perfect position to proclaim the Good News of Jesus into every issue and challenge we face. God has set us up in this place to bring to our families and community His peace and comfort.

God has placed you here for a time such as this! Allow Him to lead you and keep asking Him to open your eyes, ears, and heart to see, hear, and understand what He is calling you to do.

Taste and see that the LORD is good. Psalm 34:8

Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise. Psalm 100:4

Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name. Psalm 29:2

Glory in His holy Name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice. Psalm 105:3

Let us Kneel before the LORD our Maker. Psalm 95:6

Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything. Ephesians 5:19-20

Have we forgotten God?

We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven; we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has grown.

But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us, and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own.

Intoxicated with unbroken success we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us.

It has seemed to me fit and proper that God should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and one voice, by the whole of the American people. I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens.

—Abraham Lincoln,
1863 Thanksgiving Proclamation

Control

Things we CANNOT control:

- Someone else's faults
- How long we will live
- Another person's opportunities

Things we CAN control:

- Our attitude
- The kind of life we live
- What we do with our opportunities

Three kinds of giving

"There are three kinds of giving: grudge giving, duty giving and thanksgiving. Grudge giving says, 'I have to'; duty giving says, 'I ought to'; and thanksgiving says, 'I want to.' The latter comes from a full heart. Thanksgiving is an open gate into the love of God."

Whatever is Admirable

Finally, whatever is ADMIRABLE – think about such things – and the God of peace will be with you. Philippians 4. The Greek word euphayma actually means "good report". This word deals with passing along good information – good news – good reports. One commentator explains that this word means "worth talking about". Another translates it, "Things which are fit for God to hear".

Finally, whatever is admirable (a good report), think on such things, and the God of peace will be with you. A couple days before soldiers crucify Jesus, when Mary pours perfume for Jesus' burial onto His head, Jesus declares, "This good report will be spoken in memorial of her". God's apostle Paul writes, "I was personally unknown to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. They only heard the report: The man who formerly persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy."
Solomon writes, "A good report makes the bones healthy". Proverbs 15:30

You share good reports to give your hearers healthy bones. You share good reports to lead others to the God of peace.

And of course what is most admirable – the greatest good report: Christ is Risen Indeed. 1 Corinthians 15. Reverend Doctor Lucas Woodford, District President of Minnesota South, gives a good report from this summer's Synod Convention. Think about his good report of what is admirable, and the God of peace will be with you.

The 69th Regular Convention of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod met July 18-23 in Phoenix. Its theme, "Christ is Risen Indeed" was drawn from 1 Corinthians 15:20-22: "But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead... For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive."

The convention began with the Divine Service. Thousands joined in singing "This Joyful Eastertide," accompanied by organ, brass and a choir of 55 children from congregations across the Synod. Throughout the week, daily prayer, hymnody, international greetings and remembrance of church workers called to glory helped keep the convention grounded in Christ.

Especially inspiring were the standing ovations and singing of the Common Doxology after the Synod recognized the altar and pulpit fellowship with the Evangelical Lutheran Christian Church of Bolivia and expressed support for the same with Lutheran Missions – Australia.

Actions Taken

The Synod adopted "Tell the Next Generation" as its new mission and ministry emphasis and approved resolutions encouraging parish-level church planting, campus ministry, ministry among youth and young adults, congregational revitalization and stronger digital witness. The convention's national offering for this emphasis surpassed $740,000 during the week.

The convention also reinstated the Commission on Worship, providing the Synod with a formal means to evaluate worship resources and encourage faithful, beautiful and doctrinally sound hymnody and liturgical practice.

Other significant resolutions condemned political violence, encouraged responsible Christian participation in public life, directed the Commission on Theology and Church Relations (CTCR) to examine pressing political and social questions, and called for careful theological and ethical consideration of artificial intelligence. The convention also addressed sexual misconduct by rostered workers, seeking clearer procedures and spiritual care for those harmed.

The Synod reaffirmed its historic teaching and practice regarding closed communion. The seminaries were asked to study questions surrounding the public reading of Scripture in worship.

Pastoral Formation

The convention reaffirmed the Synod's traditional residential approach to preparing pastors while responding to concerns raised throughout the church.

Resolution 6-04A affirmed the residential Master of Divinity and Residential Alternate Route as the Synod's normal, preferred forms of pastoral formation and rejected an online M. Div. model. Resolution 6-05A reaffirmed that the LCMS will continue to own and operate its pastoral-training pathways rather than outsource formation to independent institutions. These resolutions passed with more than 75% and 80% support, respectively.

The convention also affirmed the current parameters of the Specific Ministry Pastor (SMP) program, encouraged SMP pastors to pursue General Pastor Certification and urged congregations and districts to help fund that continuing education. The Pastoral Formation Committee was broadened to include additional seminary, parish and district representation, thereby strengthening consultation across the Synod.

Camp Executive Director, Adam, loves to visit congregations to share greetings and tell the members more about Camp Okoboji. I have the following Sundays available this fall: Oct. 11; Nov. 15; Nov. 22.

The Camp Okoboji LCMS Foundation Board of Directors met on Oct. 10, and approved a distribution of more than $30,000 for Camp programs, camper scholarships, and facility needs. Behind every dollar of that is a legacy of dear friends of Camp that have helped to grow the Foundation through generosity, and behind every dollar is a story of how Camp changes lives, and God-willing, will continue to impact lives with the Gospel for many more generations. Visit campokoboji.org to find out more about the Foundation.

PERSONNEL: We are actively recruiting for our 2027 Summer Staff! Please encourage youth (at least 16 years of age) and college students to consider serving with us. The NLOMA Joint Recruitment will be open on October 15 at 8 am. Those interested in serving at Camp Okoboji, or any LCMS camp in 2026 should complete a NLOMA profile. That is the first step in being considered for a summer position.

Thank You!

THANKS to volunteers and groups who give so generously of their time and talents in serving Camp Okoboji.

- We are grateful for Dale Kimball and Steve Frank for taking on an important project – rebuilding (and expanding) the back deck for cabin Marflow. We are thankful for their work and support of the project.

We loved having the IDW Senior High Youth Gathering this year! What a great group!

November is punctuated by so many opportunities to share our thanks and gratitude publicly; in fact, it's widely encouraged. I pray that you share God's goodness with those around you on a daily basis. He presents us with so much beauty and joy every day, take time to notice. If you are in a season of life that is overflowing with wonderful things – celebrate and be grateful.

If you are in a season of struggle, which most of us can empathize with, I'm going to encourage you to look for God's abundance even in this difficult time and lean into His presence. Serve in gratitude if you are able. Taking a walk with my mom shortly after she had been diagnosed with cancer, I asked her, "Are you mad at God because of this?" My wonderful mom, in all of her faith driven wisdom, replied, "I've never questioned His blessings, why would I question Him now?" Wow – gratitude overflowing in a really difficult season. And yes, she was healed completely, but it was by going to be with our Lord a mere three months later.

A song for you as you go into this Thanksgiving holiday mindset, and one that I pray you keep all year long. "All my words fall short, I got nothing new, How could I express, All my gratitude?... And I know it's not much, But I've nothing else fit for a King, Except for a heart singing hallelujah Hallelujah" [Gratitude - song link] (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dQdfs5S6jyA)

November 2026

What a joy and blessing it was to once again welcome our special missionary friend, Margaret Schroeder of Worthington, MN, along with her dear daughter, Kerry Sauer of Lismore, MN, for Kerry's first visit to Mission Central. It was 17 years ago that Margaret made her first visit, and she never forgot her experience here! Now, she and Kerry are planning to bring others to Mission Central for a tour.

It was so wonderful to welcome Al and Linda Krahn, who came all the way from Gleason, Wisconsin, because an LWML member told them they simply had to stop and visit Mission Central during their travels out West. Yes, it's all about "word-of-mouth" connections here at Mission Central. We have not spent a single cent on advertising during these past 32 years! Our visitors do the advertising, sharing with others what the Lord Jesus has done out here in the middle of nowhere.

Rod Husman, of Cherokee, Iowa, stopped by for a visit because he is interested in going on a short-term mission trip. If YOU would like to go on a similar short-term mission adventure, you can contact our LCMS Director of Short-Term Missions, Erin Alter, at the LCMS International Center in St. Louis. Her number is 314-996-1746. She would be happy to help you get started!

What a blessing it was to welcome our Latin America Business Manager and Volunteer Coordinator, Stan and Dana Stigdon, who live in the Dominican Republic. They arrived here on September 19, 2026, and gave an excellent presentation on their work throughout all of Latin America. Their photos were outstanding, and they were able to share stories about the people, congregations, and countless individuals involved in the growth of many new congregations. This amazing couple serves as "missionaries to our missionaries" and is involved in important behind-the-scenes work that helps keep our missionaries on the mission field. Please remember to pray for this special couple as they continue to serve our Lord Jesus in Latin America.

What a special, special day it was on Friday, October 2, 2026, in the hills of western Iowa at the world-famous Mission Central!! We were so blessed to welcome the 8th Grade class from Cornerstone Christian School in Omaha for a complete tour of the Creation Theater, the Barn Museum, and the Ministry Center. Here you see the group in the Barn Museum, as well as the entire class that was sworn in as missionaries for the rest of their lives by our world-famous sign! It was truly a day that this entire group will never, never forget!

It was a beautiful Sunday afternoon on October 4, when special friends of Pastor and Sue stopped by to see Mission Central on their way home to Fargo, ND. Lydia, Elsie, James, and Marcella Trandem enjoyed a full tour of our campus and were reminded once again WHY we send missionaries to tell people about Jesus all over the world. It was so wonderful to see them again, and we pray that they will have an opportunity to come and visit us again sometime! It was truly a day that we will always remember.

"Dear brothers and sisters, be patient as you wait for the Lord's return. Consider the farmers who patiently wait for the rains in the fall and in the spring. They eagerly look for the valuable harvest to ripen." James 5:7 Interestingly enough, my thoughts turned to this verse after driving past countless corn and soybean fields over the last few weeks thinking of how harvest was pushed back later by our September rains this year. I found myself marveling at the intricate details of God's creation. I understand not wanting to get your combine stuck in the mud, but my big question was, "How do corn and soybeans know when to stop absorbing water, so they're dry enough to harvest?" That also led me to think about Ecclesiastes 3 "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens", and God's perfect timing.

But those drives also reminded me of something important: God is our magnificent Designer. He created each plant with purpose, providing what it needs to grow and produce at the right time. And just as He thoughtfully designed the world around us, He created each of us with beautiful creativity and purpose.

Ephesians 2:10 reminds us, "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." What a wonderful reason to give thanks! We are God's handiwork, lovingly created by Him and redeemed through the death and resurrection of Jesus. Our salvation is a gift of grace, not something we earn. In gratitude for all He has given us, we respond by serving our neighbors and sharing His love through the good works He has prepared for us.

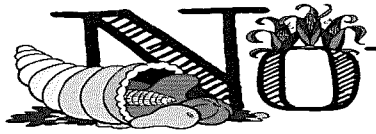

As we celebrate this season of thanks and gratitude, I am especially grateful for the many ways you live out that calling through IOWAY. So many of you have reached out with, "I have this little project…" or "We'd like to do a little something…" Please know that when God works through your generosity, those little projects can have an extraordinary impact. A simple act of kindness, a donated resource, a willing volunteer, or a new community partnership can grow into something far greater than we might imagine.

Through your generosity, God continues to provide for families and communities across our district and beyond. Your willingness to share your time, resources, and gifts helps connect people with care and reminds them that they are not forgotten. These efforts are needed, deeply appreciated, and worthy of thanksgiving.

So, the next time you pass a cornfield or watch a soybean harvest, take a moment to marvel at the wisdom of our Creator. Consider the thought He put into every detail of that cornstalk or soybean, right down to the timing of the harvest. Then reflect on the care and purpose He has woven into you.

This Thanksgiving, may we give thanks not only for what God has provided, but also for the opportunities He gives us to share those blessings with others. What we may consider a little thing can become a beautiful expression of God's love when He works through our hands.
